C Bm Am G
The coolness of the riverbank, and the whispering of the reeds
Am Bm C D
Daybreak is not so very far away

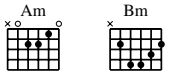
C Bm Am G
Enchanted and spellbound, in the silence the lingered
Am Bm C D D
And rowed the boat as the light grew steadily strong
C Bm Am G
And the birds were silent, as they listened for the heavenly music
C Bm Am D
And the river played the song

G Am Bm C G
The wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn
Am Bm C D
The wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn

The song dream happened and the cloven hoofed piper
Played in that holy ground where they felt the awe and wonder
And they all were unafraid of the great god Pan

And the wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn
The wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn

Whe the vision vanished they heard a choir of birds singing
In the heavenly silence between the trance and the reeds
And they stood upon the lawn and listened to the silence

Of the wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn
The wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn
The wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn


Of the wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn
The wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn
The wind in the willows and the piper at the gates of dawn
