DIXIE CHICKEN

Little Feat

A I ve seen the bright lights of Memphis, and the Commodore Hotel E7
And underneath a street lamp, I met a southern belle A/C A/C# D A E
Oh, she took me to the river, where she cast her spell
And in that southern moonlight, she sang this song so well
If you ll be my Dixie chicken I ll be your Tennessee lamb
And we can walk together down in Dixieland E7 A EA E7 A EA
Down in Dixieland
We made all the betweets any group flowed like wine
We made all the hotspots, my money flowed like wine E7 A The path of the bound and the bound of the part of the
Then the low-down southern whiskey, yea, began to fog my mind A/C A/C# D A E
And I don't remember church bells, or the money I put down
On the white picket fence and boardwalk E7 A
On the house at the end of town A/C A/C# D A E
Oh but boy do I remember the strain of her refrain
And the nights we spent together
And the way she called my name
A If you ll be my Dixie chicken I ll be your Tennessee lamb E7 A EA
And we can walk together down in Dixieland E7 A EA
Down in Dixieland
Well, many years since she ran away, yes that guitar player sure could play
She always handy with a song, she always liked to sing along A/C A/C# D A E
But then one night at the lobby of the Commodore Hotel
I chanced to meet a bartender, who said he knew her well
A/C A/C# D A E And as he handed me a drink - he began to hum a song
A And all the boys there, at the bar, began to sing along
A
If you ll be my Dixie chicken I'll be your Tennessee lamb E7 A E A
And we can walk together down in Dixieland E7
Down in Dixieland E7 A E A
Down in Dixieland E7 A E A
Down in Dixieland
