GIVE ME A REASON

The Common Linnets

Intro, with Melody: c b a g
C                        Csus
/++++ /++++ /++++ /++++
C                        Csus
/++++ /++++ /++++ /++++

Em7                                    C
 You tell me that you can't make up your mind
Em7                              Dm7
 You've been riding fences all your life
F
 So go ahead and build your own little boat
            Ab
Won't you tell me if it floats
        Bb                    C
And if it don't, don't you cry to me

Em7                                    C
 Tell me, maybe I'd be better off on my own
Em7                                       Dm7
 Just wanna hear me tell you baby, that you're wrong
F
 So damned tired of the constant contradictions
           Ab
Baby getting your convictions
      Bb              C
I can't make up your mind (oh no)

        C                        F
So why can't you just look me in the eye
        C                        F
The very least you owe me is goodbye
                Dm7
If you want a heartache
                    F
I'd give me a reason to run
            Dm       F
If you want a love song    (break)
                        C              Csus
Give me a reason to write you one
Em7                                      C
 You're talking of a love for heaven nothing is safe
Em                       Dm7
 Leaving you free in your little cage
F
 Won't you give me just a little piece of truth
     Ab                  Bb         C
It's less about me and it's more about you

        C                        F
So why can't you just look me in the eye
        C                        F
The very least you owe me is goodbye
                Dm
If you want a heartache
                    F
I'd give me a reason to run
            Dm7      F
If you want a love song   (break)
                    C
Give me a reason to write you one

guitar solo
Bb          F          G          G7
/++++/++++ /++++/++++ /++++/++++ /++++/++++

          C                              F
So why can't you just look me in the eye
          C                              F
The very least you owe me is goodbye
                      Dm7
If you want a heartache
                      F
I'd give me a reason to run
              Dm7              F
If you want a love soooong /++++  (break)/++
                              C
Give me a reason to write you one
Csus                    C
    Give me a reason to write you one

       Ab            Csus            Em
4                 ×  ×   o        o      o o o
