Lilly was standing at the corner
She waited there in front of the store
She waited there for an hour or two
Who knows, she maybe waited more

F C
But no - body showed

F C
So Lilly, she decided she go

Am Bb
And she rides tonight

C7
Lilly's man's name is Dan
He works in the back of a dirty book stand
His best friends know his mind
But nobody knows his plans

F C
And no - body else

F C
Knows what Danny boy got to sell

Am Bb
Lord he rides tonight

C C7

Am E
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Am E
There was whispering in the dark

Am E
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey

Am E
Yes you're gonna get hurt someday

Am E
Well, it's not so hard to understand

Am
It's the same old story

E
About supply and demand

C
He tried to go straight

F
He tried hard to learn

G
How you gonna do

C
When people beg to be burnt

guitar solo over verse

just percussion and bass drum, and (bariton) horn drone

C7
Now there was whispering about a meeting

C7
 But who they gonna meet this time
 C7
 I heard someone got greedy, Lord
 Pulled out a pistol
 C7
 Said Lilly and Danny baby
 It's the end of your line
 F C
 You know the shots rang clear
 F C
 But no one was able to hear
 Am Bb
 Lord, they died that night
