E F#m A G#m

I took a walk by the sea

E F#m A G#m

Nothing else, just for me

E F#m A G#m E F#m A G#m
Yesterday was a long, long time ago / + + ^/ + + / + + ^/ + +

E F#m A G#m

There's a man and he's sighing

E F#m A G#m

It's all he's got to keep from crying

E F#m A G#m

His shattered dreams have been worn down by

E F#m A G#m
life ^/ + + / + + ^/ + +

A E
And I wonder now

A G#m E
How a man gets so far down

A E
Where's the pride and the glory

A B
Where's the pot of gold

E F#m A G#m and I.... I..... ^/ + +

/// (break) I,

E F#m A G#m E F#m A G#m
I look to the children Oooooeeooooeooo

I took a walk by the sea
I'd forgotten what it meant to me
Some things we should carry from the past
There's a boy and he's singin'

And in the wind his words are ringin'
His innocence it is buried in us all

Now I look and see
That boy inside of me
May have seen a storm or two
But the dream is alive

E F#m A G#m
and I.... I..... ^/ + +

/// (break) I,

E F#m A G#m E F#m A

I look to the children Oooooeeooooeooo
