MAGNOLIA MOUNTAIN

Ryan Adams, from Cold Roses (2005)

Bm I wanna go to Magnolia Mountain And lay my weary head down Down on the rocks A Asus4 A Of the mountain my savior made Steady my soul and ease my worry Hold me when I rattle like a hummingbird hummin' A Asus4 A Tie me to the rocks of the mountain my savior made C#m B Lie to me Α

Sing me a song Sing me a song until the morning comes C#m If the morning come, will you lie to me Will you take me to your bed Will you lay me down

Til' I'm heavy like the rocks in the riverbed That my savior made

I wanna be the bluebird singing Singing to the roses in her yard Roses in her yard her father grew for her It's been raining like Tennessee honey So long I got too heavy to fly Ain't no bluebird ever gets too heavy to sing

Lie to me Sing me a song Sing me a song until the morning comes And if the morning don't come, will you lie to me Will you take me to your bed Will you lay me down Ti'l I'm heavy like the rocks in the riverbed That my savior made ... please

We burn the cotton fields down in the valley And ended up with nothing but scars Scars became the lessons that we gave to our children - after the war There ain't nothing but the truth of Magnolia Mountain Where nobody ever dies Steady your soul and ease your worry They got a room for you

Lie to me like I lie to vou Hold me down until the morning comes And if the morning don't come Will you lie to me Will you take me to your bed Will you lay me down Ti'l I'm heavy like the rocks in the riverbed That my savior made ... please
